My dear dear Kings,

I must send you a little note though I know Prætor. Sister will write. You great big gift to the children came safely today. Thank you, my loving child. We had a little new one, three months old, who was actually in a temple woman's arms when a Christian woman passing saw her, & felt she must try to save her, & she did save her by the grace of the Lord. I always ask for some special gift of ornaments that all the usual needs will be supplied when a new child is given to us, & your gift is the first to come after she came.

Then all you tell me is so interesting. You boy - I do praise God for that. What a nice letter. We shall show it to Godfrey Anachis (I know you credit him an Anachis) & he will be very pleased. God bless the dear boy.

And you <sup>father</sup> son-in-law (I think of such relationships as in-law, rather than "in-law") I had forgot him. And your darling children, I remember them all & your husband. Surely goodness & mercy will follow you all the days of your life & you will dwell in the House of the Lord for ever. There will be dark valleys - his otherwise could we prove in Shepherd's care & comforting Presence? but you will not tarry there, you will pass on & through.

One of the brothers has gone to Bangalore & he will come & bring back the radio set - It will be a magic

I am so glad about dear Mrs Rose Sue has my love
and to you, darling,
my heart's love!
